Immanuel Lutheran School, Giddings Inspire, Learn, Care, Serve

The Knights of the Round Table Gala was a huge success. Participants had a wonderful time enjoying food, libations, and fun. Auctioneer Nick Hines kept the action flowing and bidding was fast and furious. Chairpersons Megan Kirk and Amber Nietzsche and their committee did a great job soliciting gifts and organizing the event. Community businesses were generous. Over $60,000 was raised in support of the school. Save the date for May 7 next spring.

Summer Camps

We have close to 100 registrations for summer camps. They are a great way to keep student minds engaged and active. There is still room to apply. Applications are attached.

The kindergarten class of 2021 sang praises to our Lord at the graduation ceremonies last evening.

THANK YOU to all who made this year a year to remember. The challenges and restrictions of the year will fade with time but the friendships and successes will last. We are all so grateful for the love and support of parents, grandparents, and friends shown throughout the year. Our enrollment is strong for the coming year. Enjoy a restful summer.

Thank you Jaeger family for 23 years in a row at Immanuel.

What is a Christian education worth?

Why not ask Jim and Deanna Jaeger? For the past 23 years they have had a child at Immanuel Lutheran. That is Commitment with a capital C. It takes a lot of sacrifice for that to happen, especially when there were four kids in school at the same time. Some may argue that Jim is a successful businessman so it was easier for him. It was not always so as anyone who owns a business knows. Jim and Deanna made sacrifices on housing, vehicles, and whatever it took to pay tuition for all five children.

It isn't just that Jim and Deanna value the academic progress and success their children achieved. What they really value is an education infused with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. They know the difference it makes and they sacrificed to make it happen. As we say goodbye to Jarett, the last of their children, we honor the commitment Jim and Deanna made to their children and Immanuel Lutheran.
