Thanksgiving Lunch

A huge thank you is due to Alice and Delores and all the volunteers who made the Thanksgiving lunch special. The number of average lunches sold is between 80-100. We served over 350 for Thanksgiving.

Above: It took a lot of volunteers to serve our families and guest for Thanksgiving. Here are a number of them pulling turkey for lunch.

Thanksgiving Overflows

Volunteers foster a culture of cooperation and a feeling that everyone counts. Everyone can contribute. We are so grateful for the many volunteers who contribute time and talent to our school. They range from tutors who read to and help students, kitchen volunteers, athletic coaches, score keepers, ticket takers, Gala committee members, health record coordinators, library assistants, field trip chaperones, PSIA tutors, PTL decorations and fund-raising, athletic boosters, classroom aides, and more. Our school would not be the same without all of our volunteers. Thank you for all you do.
